JOINT AND CO-SPONSORED PROGRAMME ON HIV/AIDS

Australia: Revised draft decision

Joint and Co-sponsored Programme on Human Immunodeficiency Virus/Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (HIV/AIDS)

1. The Economic and Social Council decides that the Programme Coordinating Board of the Joint and Co-sponsored Programme on Human Immunodeficiency Virus/Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (HIV/AIDS) should comprise 22 elected members. The distribution of seats is as follows:

(a) Five seats for African States;

(b) Five seats for Asian States;

(c) Three seats for Latin American and Caribbean States;

(d) Two seats for Eastern European States;

(e) Seven seats for Western European and other States.

2. The Council further decides to continue informal consultations on the following questions:

(a) Representation on the Programme Coordinating Board of the six co-sponsoring organizations and non-governmental organizations;

(b) Which body or bodies will conduct elections subsequent to the first election, which will be conducted by the Economic and Social Council.
